

SITE EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR

The staff of GOMS would like to know Greg Giammona and all the amazing things he involves himself in at GOMS. Greg's list ranges from coaching, after school programs, district leadership teams (MTSS and PBIS) and teaching in the CSTEM program. Greg has taken the reins of the math portion of our 8th grade CSTEM Discovery Academy and driven our students to new heights of achievement. To start with, Greg teaches both Math 8 and Integrated 1. At other times you can find Greg coaching our 8th grade flag football team.

You can find him teaching students and organizing our GOMS Math Lab after school in our library. Our math lab is designed for students to drop in and ask questions of our math teachers and get help from a select group of high school students. Yet another of Greg's accomplishments can be seen in his involvement with our Intel Pals program that challenged our students to work with Intel employees to develop real and then digital Mars Lunar Landers! This program raised funds for our CSTEM program while also giving our students the ability to work with professionals in the tech industry. We are deeply indebted to Greg and all his hard work making our school a safe, challenging, and fun place to learn. Congratulations Mr. Giammona!
