

Guided Reading 5.2

1. Freedom to practice the religion of one's choice or no religion at all.
 - Second Amendment
 - First Amendment
 - Tenth Amendment
 - Fourth Amendment
2. Right not to be forced to testify against oneself in a criminal trial
 - Seventh Amendment
 - Third Amendment
 - Ninth Amendment
 - Fifth Amendment
3. Right of convicted criminals to protection against "cruel and unusual punishment."
 - Eighth Amendment
 - Sixth Amendment
 - Tenth Amendment
 - Third Amendment
4. Grants to the states the people any powers that the Constitution does not specifically give to Congress or prohibit from the states.
 - Second Amendment
 - Tenth Amendment
 - Ninth Amendment
 - First Amendment
5. Right of the accused person to have the services of an attorney.
 - Sixth Amendment
 - First Amendment
 - Third Amendment
 - Ninth Amendment
6. Right not to be forced by the military to provide housing for soldiers.
 - Seventh Amendment
 - Ninth Amendment
 - Tenth Amendment
 - Third Amendment
7. Right to free speech
 - Second Amendment
 - First Amendment
 - Tenth Amendment
 - Third Amendment
8. Right to have juries decide civil cases
 - Seventh Amendment
 - Third Amendment
 - Sixth Amendment
 - Fourth Amendment

First Amendment

Read about the First Amendment on pages 178 & 179 and, the space provided, discuss the three exceptions to the right of free speech.

1. Exception: _____

2. Exception: _____

3. Exception: _____
