

JEFFERSON’S FIRST INAUGURAL ADDRESS

An “inaugural address” is a speech a president gives at their inauguration – or swearing-in ceremony. Presidents usually take this opportunity to outline their vision for the future.

Read the excerpts from Jefferson’s Inaugural Address on page 230 and answer the following questions:

1. How does Jefferson try to reassure his political opponents?
2. What words and phrases indicate Jefferson’s support for a small national government?

JEFFERSON’S FIRST INAUGURAL ADDRESS

An “inaugural address” is a speech a president gives at their inauguration – or swearing-in ceremony. Presidents usually take this opportunity to outline their vision for the future.

Read the excerpts from Jefferson’s Inaugural Address on page 230 and answer the following questions:

1. How does Jefferson try to reassure his political opponents?
2. What words and phrases indicate Jefferson’s support for a small national government?