

Name:

Date:

Class:

KT&P P.30

Example:

Diocletian: He was an emperor of Rome who believed the empire was too big. He decided to divide the empire in two.

Constantine: He was an emperor of Rome who reunited the two halves. He also moved the capital from Rome to Constantinople.

Clovis: He was a Frankish king who built a huge kingdom in Gaul. He was Christian and a powerful Germanic king.

Attila: He was a leader of the Huns. He raided Roman territory in the east.

Corruption: Corruption is the decay of people's values. Corrupt officials used threats and bribery to achieve their goals.